

From Dust and To Dust

~ Genesis 3

1. Why wasn't it strange that the serpent talked, much less questioned God?
2. How is man's temptation in chap. 3 like Jesus' in Matt. 4?
3. Why does God allow a tempting, deceiving serpent (see Job 1)?
4. What is the immediate and long term result of disobedience to God (3:7, 8, 10, 12&13)?
5. What do you know that you wish you didn't?
6. What are the curses and consequences of sin in chap. 3?
7. How come we can't find the garden of Eden?
