

The Power of Presence

Sunday, October 18th, 2020

- 1) Can you think of a time in particular that a situation in your life was altered dramatically simply because someone showed up? Was it positive or negative that they showed up?
- 2) Can you think of a time in particular that a situation in your life was altered dramatically because Jesus showed up?
- 3) What ways should you or do you acknowledge the presence of God in your daily life?
- 4) Do you think that the Roman Centurion in Matthew 8:5-13 was a Christian (a true Jesus-follower)? Can someone have faith in God, but not have an ongoing relationship with Jesus?
- 5) How does acknowledging the presence of God and having faith in its life-changing power change your daily perspective? (1 Peter 1:3-5; 8-9)
